Who am I?

Hi! I am Isabella, an illustrator and designer from Italy. My illustration passion started when I was a child watching Disney cartoons and reading Topolino, the Italian version of Donald Duck! I love to illustrate by hand and digital following my style and Disney style.

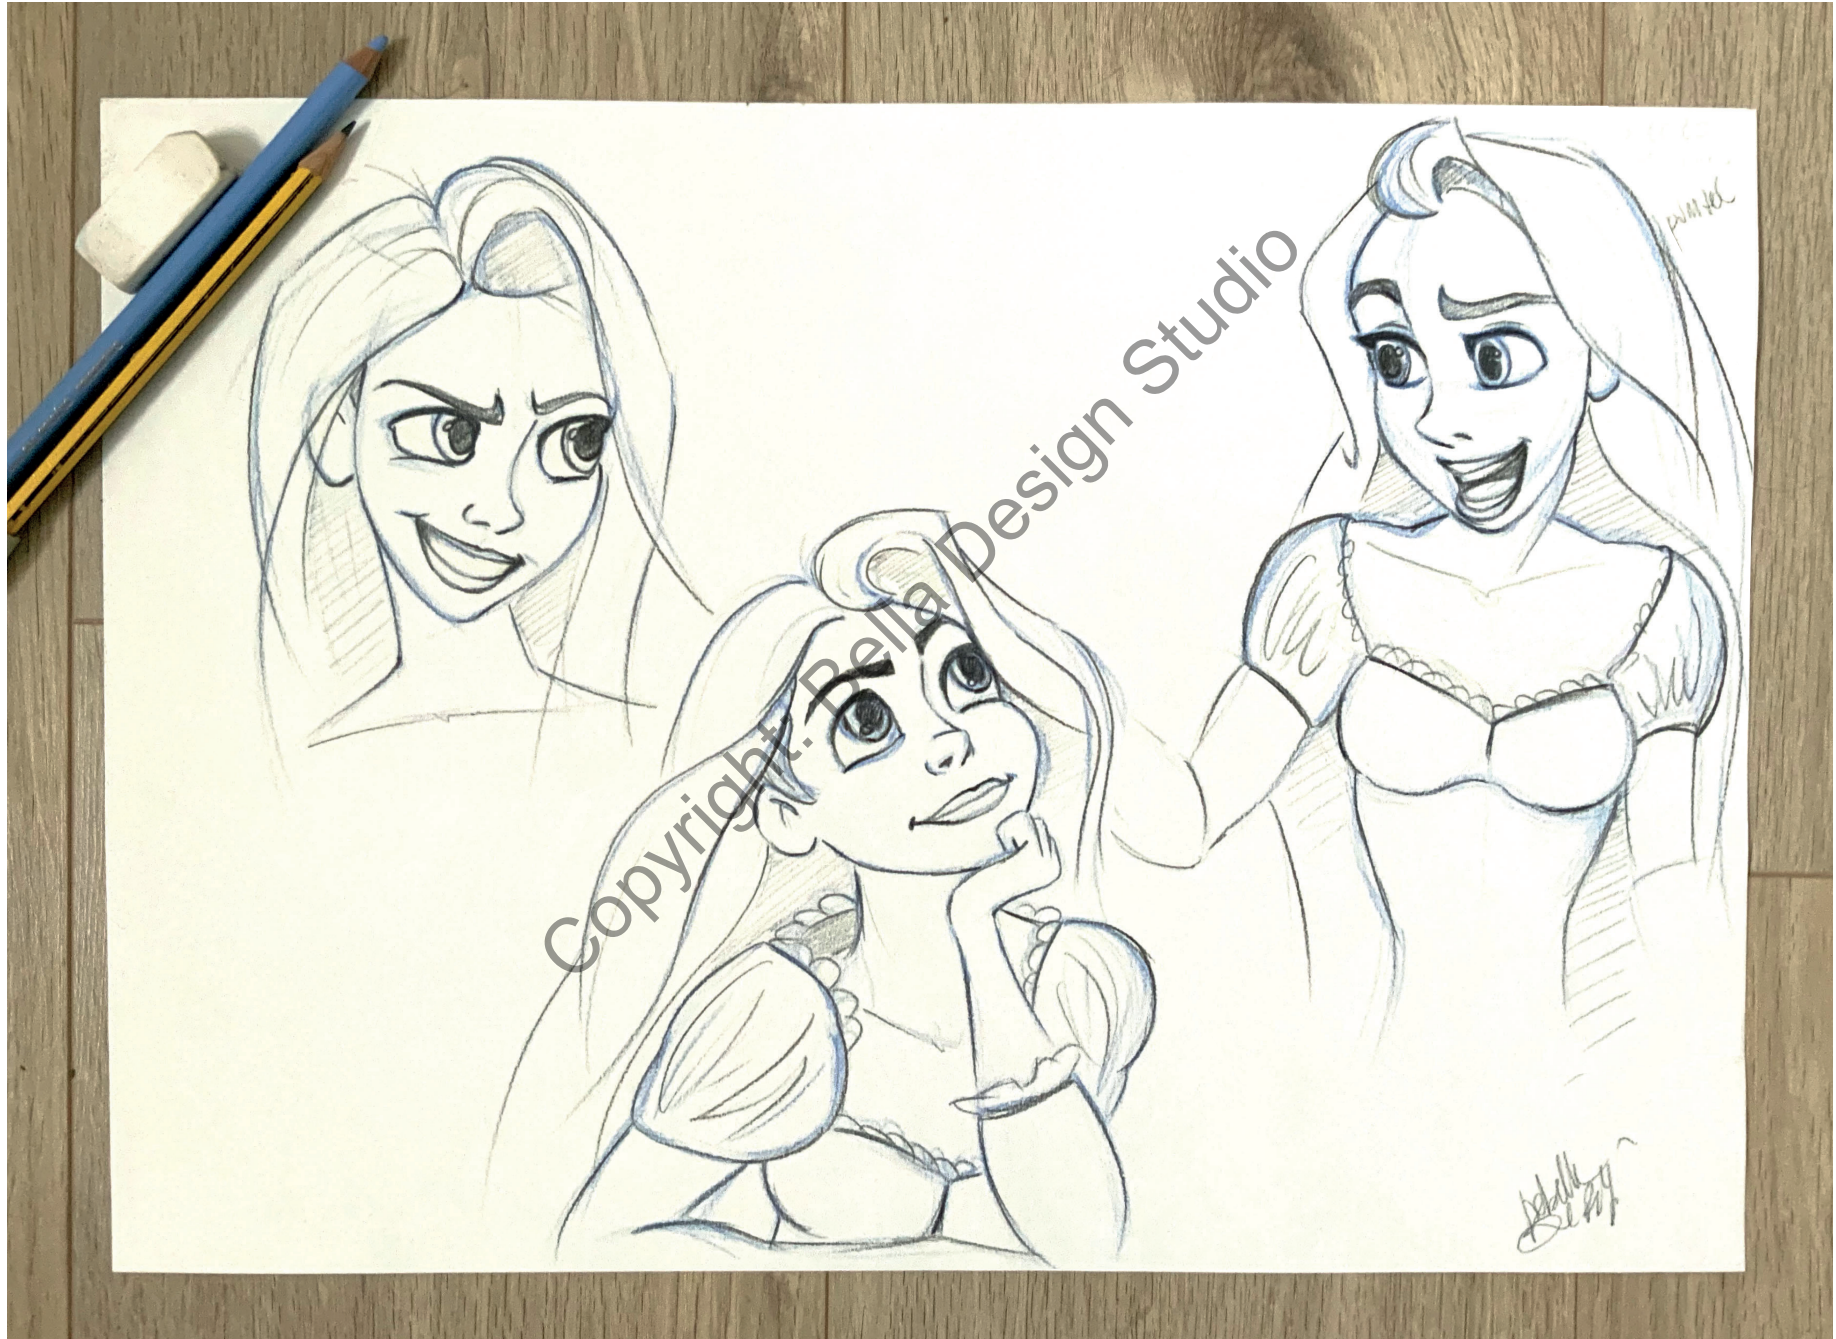

I started to read the Dutch Donald Duck, after a few years that I was in the Netherlands and it helped and still helps me so much to learn and improve my dutch!

I hope you will like my portfolio.
Thank you!
Isabella
